

Arkansas Gerontological Society Volunteer Award Categories

AGS Sister Pierre Vorster Award

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing outstanding volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; must be 18 years or older; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection & Scholarship committee.

Selection Process: Upon approval of application candidate will be reviewed by Selection & Scholarship committee; Selection & Scholarship committee will submit selected recipient to the Arkansas Gerontological Society Board for final approval vote. Sister Pierre Vorster Award will be presented to selected individual along with a $500.00 contribution to the recipient's favorite charity.

AGS Elder Volunteer

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; must be 75 years or older; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection & Scholarship committee.

AGS Freshman Volunteer

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; must be 18 years or under; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection & Scholarship committee.

AGS Innovative Volunteer or Group Award

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; must be 18 years or older; individual or group must submit or demonstrate a unique or new service to older persons; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection & Scholarship committee.

AGS Intergenerational Volunteer or Group

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; includes all ages; exemplify interdependence of different generations; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection and Scholarship committee.

AGS Outstanding Volunteer Group Award

Qualifications: Actively involved in providing volunteer services to individuals who are 65 or older; includes all ages; submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection and Scholarship committee.

Selection process for the above awards:

Upon approval of the application, the candidate will be reviewed by the AGS Selection and Scholarship Committee. The committee will submit the selected recipients to the Arkansas Gerontological Society Board of Directors for the final approval vote.

These awards will be presented to the selected individuals or groups at the AGS 2019 Spring Conference on April 4th.